

FEBRUARY 13, 2009 -- "LOVE VS. WEALTH"

Welcome and hello. We share with you this day a message of love and understanding. There are many in your world of form that do not understand the concept of love vs. wealth. The minds of men in particular have been polarized into the thinking that to give and receive love, money must be traded or acquired as a symbol of status. Know that this is changing in your world as money is being removed quickly from the equation.

What one places value on will be examined and re-integrated as there is no price tag or value on the giving and receiving of love. Somehow in your world of form, money has been the common denominator in partnerships of all kinds. Money has been used as a "bribe" to acquire loving affection – the purchase of material goods or as you call "gifts" in exchange for affection, sexual favors and even commitments.

The custom you now have of a man purchasing a ring and giving it to a woman as a symbol of love and commitment will also crumble, as many realize that this symbol no longer represents the true intention. Rather the size, the cost, where it was purchased, supersedes and overshadows the intention and this undermines the actual act of love.

We ask you to ponder these words as to what you place value on. What is of importance to you in these changing energies. Do you value money over love, or do you feel that only love is worth valuing?

The 4th Light is a place where value is placed on acts and deeds as thought forms manifest near instant results. There is no true place to play games of deception, manipulation or control. This is not allowed in the higher vibrating energy of the 5th Light and beyond.

We advise you whose goal is to ascend from the 3d to the 4th Light to search your mind and heart as to what you place value on and work towards the goal of releasing all attachments to material things as a symbol of love and worth. Love is not a material object, nor can it be bought, borrowed or coerced. Love is a state of being. Simply said – you are the love you seek. All the riches and treasures in the Universe reside within each of you. You only need to look in each others eyes to know it, to share it and to express it.

Be in love, be in joy. We are the Messengers of the 5th Light. – February 12, 2009
