

APRIL 4, 2009 -- "THE ROBE OF THE MASTER"

We greet thee Beloved Daughter of the One Infinite Creator –

You asked for our wisdom concerning the current energies affecting mankind on this planet.

As your formal religions prepare for the reenactment of the passion, death and resurrection of the one called Jesus, we note that much negativity holds the minds of these followers in a state of turmoil and fear. Let the example of the life of the Master Jeshua Ben Joseph be a marker along the path of Ascension to those who seek a higher vibration and way of Being.

The Master walked the path toward his resurrection with humility and in trust of the One Infinite Creator – the “Father” he spoke frequently to the masses. He did not hold fear, doubt, anger or selfishness in his heart despite the trickery, thievery and loss of his precious “robe.”

The “Robe” of the Master was symbolic, not of his material possessions and worth, but the representation of the beliefs and truths he encased himself in for the time of his impending crucifixion.

Although the Christian organized religions use these events to emphasize the “suffering, dying and eternal life” for man to come, they miss the entire “point” of the scenario manifested by the beloved Master in his “passion play” on the Grand Stage of life.

One must look at the entire drama as an event to raise the consciousness and level of vibration of those who were witnessing the “events” of his play that had been carefully planned, rehearsed and staged by the many who stepped forward to be part of the “Crucifixion, Death and Resurrection of Man.”

More than 2000 years since those events in the now Mid-East of your geographical planet, Mankind is still reenacting the great passion play and drama staged by the One Master Jeshua. Mankind has free will choice to focus their light and energy, not on drama, trauma and resulting death, but the glory and transformation through resurrection and Ascension.

Look not upon this occasion of “Easter” as a passion and suffering and fearful event of “death”, but the culmination of the dedicated walk along the path of unconditional love, trust and surrender to the One Infinite Creator’s Light. Behold this week the events to transform your life of fear and doubt, pain and suffering, to a way of Being where only love fills the heart, truth and right action and positive thought guides you to the highest light into the resurrection of mind, body and spirit.

May the glory of your light lead you to Resurrection and Ascension into the Many Mansions to accept the peace that is reserved for you as a son and daughter of the One, as brother and sister to walk beside the beloved Master Jeshua Ben Joseph in all the glory of Heaven and the Universe.

For you are ever-expanding in the eternal light. Only you need open your heart, mind and soul in acceptance of these Universal truths.

Hosanna in the highest!

We bid you much love, compassionate wisdom and the determination to see the events of your passion play to its grand conclusion – the arrival of the New Earth and the arrival of the Golden Age of Divine Being.
