

FEBRUARY 12, 2009 -- "RESPONSIBLE CHOICES"

Greetings beloved daughter of the One Infinite Creator. In all levels of society, there are teachers and earthly guides who are in body as you, who are struggling with the chaotic energies as well. Their hearts are pure as the One Infinite Creator of which they serve. Yet they are influenced by the same 3D dramas, traumas, fears and those they teach.

In order to develop a compassionate heart of unconditional love, one must accept and surrender to the perceived inadequacies and "imperfections" of others in their actions and responses. They are doing the very best they can as well considering their state of consciousness at the time. Send them love and light so that they too, may find their way out of a dark corner or mood. Remember, you are all one. Judge not those who do not live up to your expectations as you too, have not lived up to your own in the passing of judgment on them. Remove yourself if the energy does not resonate with you, and simply do nothing more than be a witness as you say for their self-growth and yours.

Part of entering the 4th Light and beyond is to love everything and all emotions as an expression of the One Infinite Creator by free will. This gift of free will which is the action of choice is a blessing to you as those who inhabit a vessel/body in form have the means to experience great lessons of growth – especially as time ceases to exist.

Again, we ask you to ponder the thought you hold, the choices you make and the words you say as they affect the many and the All.

The Ego has a subtle way of "sneaking" its influence in all areas of life when emotions are held in, and it is wise to examine the root of the emotion rather than express it unconsciously. We ask you to be more conscious of what is happening around you by withholding words and re-action until you have properly examined the source and cause. If is not your creation, do not own it.

Simply, observe it and let it flow by. Your creation is your own responsibility. Take time to ponder this. Look at what you have created and decide if it still serves your highest good in service to the All. We are at a time/space when service to the many is the main theme. Everyone is aware of how others have manipulated and controlled others for greed, money and slavery of the mind and body. Who are you serving? If you serve the self only, than it is unlikely that you will flow into the 4th Light.

There is a comrade among us who served -- he wishes to speak:

"Remember my words. Ask not what your country can do for you. Ask what you can do for your country. This applies to what you can do for your fellow man. Those who hold this in their hearts are the minority. Those who walk this path have been persecuted and killed for this belief. Yet, it is the only way to be free and sovereign.

To harbor anger or grief, animosity or fear serves no one. It is with a humble heart that I say be all you can be in love and truth. Speak your truth. For many will listen, as few have the courage to do so. I am John Fitzgerald Kennedy, and it is an honor to speak to you this day..."

Beloved, today is a day when your country honors its presidents, current and past. Like many who are not in body, such as our brother John, those who remain in form know that truth is paramount in shepharding the flock. He who has the seat in the Oval Office is wavering now as the task before him is too great. Send him love and light that it may lighten his path as he walks among the wolves and the lions. This great man knows little of what has transpired but his mind is sharp and his consciousness aware that he will succeed in bringing mankind to the door of the 4th Light.

And so we leave you this day to ponder these words of wisdom and guidance related to your teachers and leaders. We are in the light of One Infinite Creator. We are complete.
